I am going to see Dracula: Mina's Reckoning at His Majesty's Theatre, Rosemount Viaduct, Aberdeen, AB25 1GL.

The evening shows will start at 7.30pm.
The afternoon show will start at 2.30pm
I should arrive a little earlier than this.

The show will last around 2 hours and 10 minutes and will include an interval break.

This is the outside of His Majesty's Theatre, where the performance will be taking place.

This is the entrance to the box office. I should enter here.

When I am inside, I can turn left and go through the double doors to the main foyer.

This is the Box Office. This is where I can buy tickets or collect prepaid tickets for the show.

If I have an e-ticket on my phone, or already have my tickets, I do not need to go to the box office.

When I have my tickets, I can go into the theatre.

Each section of the venue has signposts above the doors and entrances which will tell me where I am going.

If I am lost, the staff will be happy to guide me in the right direction.

There are toilets available on all levels. If I need to go, I should look for the toilet signs or ask a member of staff for directions.

There is a long corridor to go down that leads from the main foyer to the old foyer.

There is a lift in the main foyer that goes between different levels and can be accessed on the box office level.

I can ask a member of staff for directions.

There will be signs next to the box office and in the stairwell to the auditorium that will say the running time of the show and any other information that would be useful to know.

This is the old foyer. There is a refreshments kiosk here where I can buy drinks and snacks before the show begins and during the interval.

There is another refreshments kiosk on the level of the main entrance.

If the kiosk in the old foyer is busy then I should go here.

Auditorium/ Performance space: Dracula: Mina's Reckoning takes place in a traditional theatre.

I will watch the performance in this large room. My seat number is on my ticket. It will have a letter for the seating row and a seat number. A member of staff can help me find it.

The lights will dim when the show is ready to start and the actors will come on to the stage.

The actors won't talk directly to me during the play. They will be in character.

I will need to be quiet while watching the show.

If I find sounds or lights disturbing during the show, I can ask a member of staff for earplugs, ear defenders or dark glasses at any time. I will need to return these after the performance.

If I would like to take some time out during the show, I may leave at any time and find a seat in the Dress Circle bar until I am ready to go back in.

There will be a TV screen that will show the performance in there.

This room is next to the box office on the level where I entered the theatre in the main foyer.

At the end of the show the audience will clap to show the actors that they enjoyed the performance.

When the clapping has ended, the lights will get brighter. This means the show is over.

I can now leave the theatre. The front of house staff will show me which way I can exit.
